

Fire Prevention Recommendations for Soup, Stew, Chili and Brew.

- 1. No straw, hay bales or corn shucks in the booth area. All decorative materials shall comply with state fire code.
- 2. Tents or canopies may use steam tables or sterno candles if they have proper containment receptacles'; Fire Department Official will have final approval.
- 3. All booths, except food preparation booths, shall have a portable fire extinguisher with a minimum rating of a 2A-IOB-C.
- 4. All booths preparing food that are using fryers, or food that produces grease laden vapors shall have a Type K Extinguisher.
- 5. All electrical extension cords that are used, must be UL listed as an outdoor use electrical cord. In reference to multi plug adapters they will not be allowed, only the use fusible power strips will be allowed.
- 6. When cooking, the cooking surface must be either be totally under the tent or at a minimum of 10' away from all tents or structures.
- 7. If using propane as a fuel source, the propane cylinder must be secured to prevent falling or being kicked over.

All recommendations are in accordance with NFPA 701 and the Office of the State Fire Marshalls Office.